how can our lives be driven by prayer this conundrum plagued even those who were closest to jesus the question the disciples asked him was not teach us to start a church or teach us how to sustain or grow a ministry they didn't ask him to teach them how to put together great messages or how to be successful communicators they were not interested in any of those things until they had asked him the most important thing teach us to pray they knew it was one of the greatest strengths he could pass on to them many christians neglect the power of prayer in their daily lives and fail to tap into its ability to impact the world in bernie moore's latest book Driven by Prayer you will be guided through the bible to recognize the stories of those whose prayers changed everything god sees his people intimately and desires to converse with his children constantly prayer is the secret that allows us to discover the treasures hidden in the heart of god discover the ultimate key to tackling all of life's issues and creating a peaceful environment in any and every situation through the simple act of prayer
